

DCIC OPG FAQ

When does the DCIC OPG contractual year begin?

The OPG contract with Love/Effron Oil Company begins September 1st and Ends August 31st of the following year. DCIC will send a letter to all current members of the OPG as well as all other houses of worship announcing changes or special offers available through Love/Effron and include the DCIC OPG Brochure & Enrollment Form with details of the contract.

How do I join the DCIC OPG?

New applicants are asked to fill out an Enrollment Form and return it along with the $100 annual membership fee to DCIC. You can also pay the DCIC OPG Enrollment fee online at www.dutchesscountyinterfaith.org/oil_purchase We will notify Love/Effron and provide them with your contact information and a representative will contact you. Current Love/Effron customers will be added to the DCIC OPG list of members they have on file. New Love/Effron customers will have to start an account and disclose fuel tank location, size, billing information, etc. New OPG members should expect the application process to take a 5-7 business days.

Can clergy residences' join the OPG?

Yes, if the billing address of the residence is the same as the house of worship.

Are individuals able to join the OPG?

No. Private individuals are not eligible to join the DCIC OPG, only houses of worship, clergy residences and non-profits paying for fuel oil for their facilities are eligible.
